THE CELEBRATOR PACKAGE.

MEET EMMA.

She wanted to celebrate her 40th birthday surrounded by her closest friends. She wanted it to be something fun, creative, and meaningful. She didn't want another dinner where everyone just scrolled through their phones.

She wanted laughter, memories, and something to take home. When Emma found The Collage Collective, she loved the idea of creating art together, even though none of her friends called themselves "creative."

We curated vintage magazine cutouts, guided them through playful prompts, and watched the room transform from chatter to concentration, then to laughter.

By the end of the workshop, each friend had made a collage that captured a little piece of Emma's story and their friendship. The walls were filled with colour, connection, and the quiet joy of making something real.

It wasn't just a party. It was a celebration of the women they'd become – together.

THE CELEBRATOR PACKAGE.

Perfect for birthday parties, hens or bridal showers, baby showers, and any beautiful gathering where connection, creativity and celebration go hand in hand.

Why choose The Celebrator?

Because it's more than a party. It's creative connection time! Guests step away from screens and into scissors, glue and conversation. They leave not just with a keepsake, but with something they made - a reflection of the time spent together.

THE CELEBRATOR PACKAGE.

How it works:

1. We tailor the session to your groups size, style and intention.
2. On the day: set up (30-minutes before) → introduction with presentation → guided prompts → creative time with guidance → sharing & display → wrap up.
3. Wrap up includes photo moment. Host helps us move guests out of the creative space for us to clean up!
4. We handle it all. We want you to focus on connection, and hosting with heart.

For who & when:

Ideal for groups of friends, families, small communities - anyone who wants to mark a milestone with intention, colour and craft. We take bookings for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sundays, from 10:30am to 9pm.

Location & logistics:

We can come to your venue or home, or you can choose to book at the venue we use at South Brisbane (can hold up to 22 people, and incurs an additional fee). We take care of set-up and pack-down; you just bring your guests (and perhaps a little bubbly!). Any venue outside of Brisbane metropolitan area incurs a travel fee.

How to book:

Reach out to us at studio@madbutt.com.au, or 0478 697 626. Have on hand your ideal date and time for the event, if you require a venue or location, theme, and anything else you'd like to share with us in the initial conversation!

THE CORPORATE PACKAGE.

MEET SOPHIE.

As a manager, she'd watched her team become more disconnected over time—screens, deadlines, and endless Zooms had left everyone drained.

The annual offsite was her chance to change that, but she wanted something genuine — not another “trust fall” exercise.

When Sophie discovered The Collage Collective, she saw the perfect balance of creativity and connection.

We designed a guided collage workshop using mindful prompts that encouraged her team to reflect, share, and play.

For two hours, they set aside their laptops, substituted spreadsheets with scissors and glue, and resumed their natural conversation.

At the end, they stood around a wall of collages—bright, bold, and entirely theirs. The art became a reminder of their shared purpose and creativity back at work.

It wasn't just a team activity. It was a creative reset.

THE CORPORATE PACKAGE.

Perfect for team-building, retreats, conferences, end-of-year functions and any corporate event where connection, creativity and collective purpose matter.

MEET MAYA.

She works at a local library and wanted to host something special – an inclusive creative workshop that would bring people of all ages together.

Her goal was simple: help her community slow down, make something with their hands, and connect through shared stories.

The Collage Collective helped her bring that vision to life. We supplied the vintage magazines, eco-friendly materials, and gentle guidance for a mixed group of families, teens, and seniors. As scissors snipped and pages turned, strangers began to share memories, laughter, and creative ideas.

By the end of the session, the library was filled with a patchwork of colour and stories – a collective artwork representing everyone’s contribution.

THE COMMUNITY PACKAGE.

Perfect for libraries, councils, neighbourhood centres, festivals, youth programs, disability groups, senior groups, galleries, and anyone wanting to bring people together through creativity, storytelling, and connection.
